Since Mike Leach took over the program in 2000, the Gameday atmosphere at Texas Tech has become one of the greatest in all of college football. Opposing teams fear coming to Lubbock because they know that Jones AT&T Stadium has become one of the most difficult places to play in the Big 12 Conference.

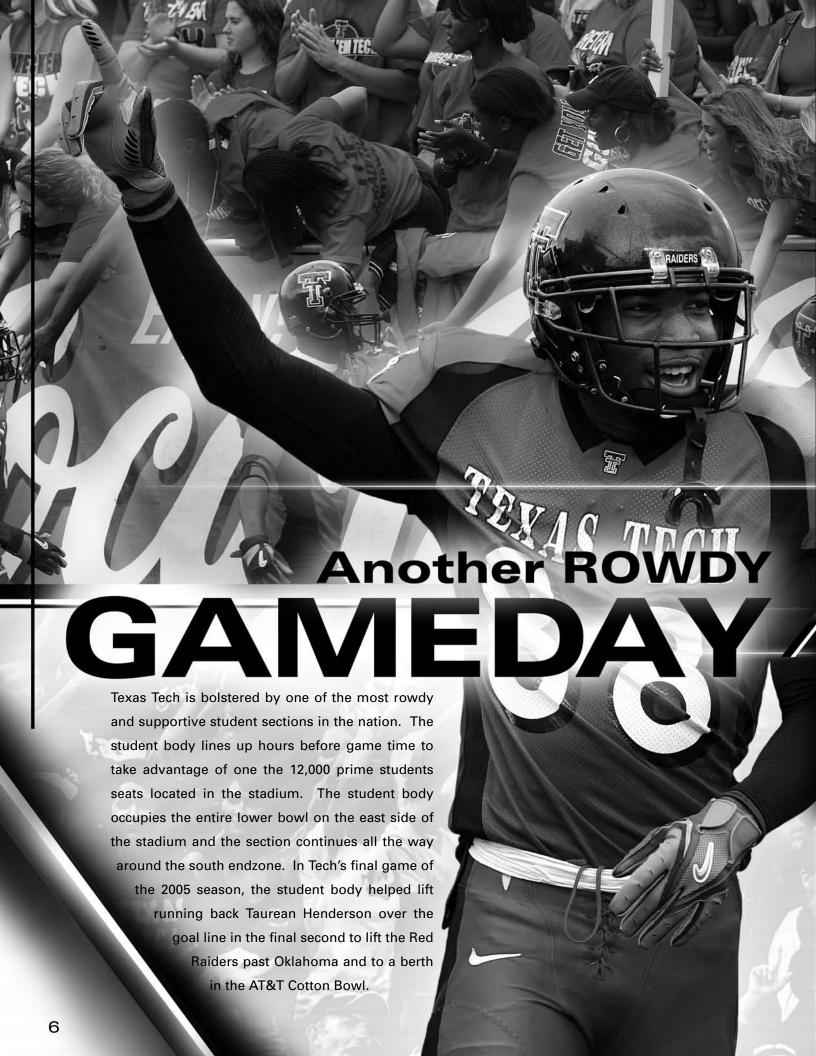

Red Raider fans have turned out in droves over the last few seasons and have prompted Tech officials to begin the process of adding more seating to the 60-year old stadium. Tech set a new season attendance record in 2004 and was just short of matching that record again in 2005.

The motto "Come Early, Be Loud and Stay Late" certainly applies to the Red Raider faithful as barbeque grills and RV's begin showing up on Thursday afternoons and the party goes on well after the game comes to an end.

GAMEDAY at Texas Tech

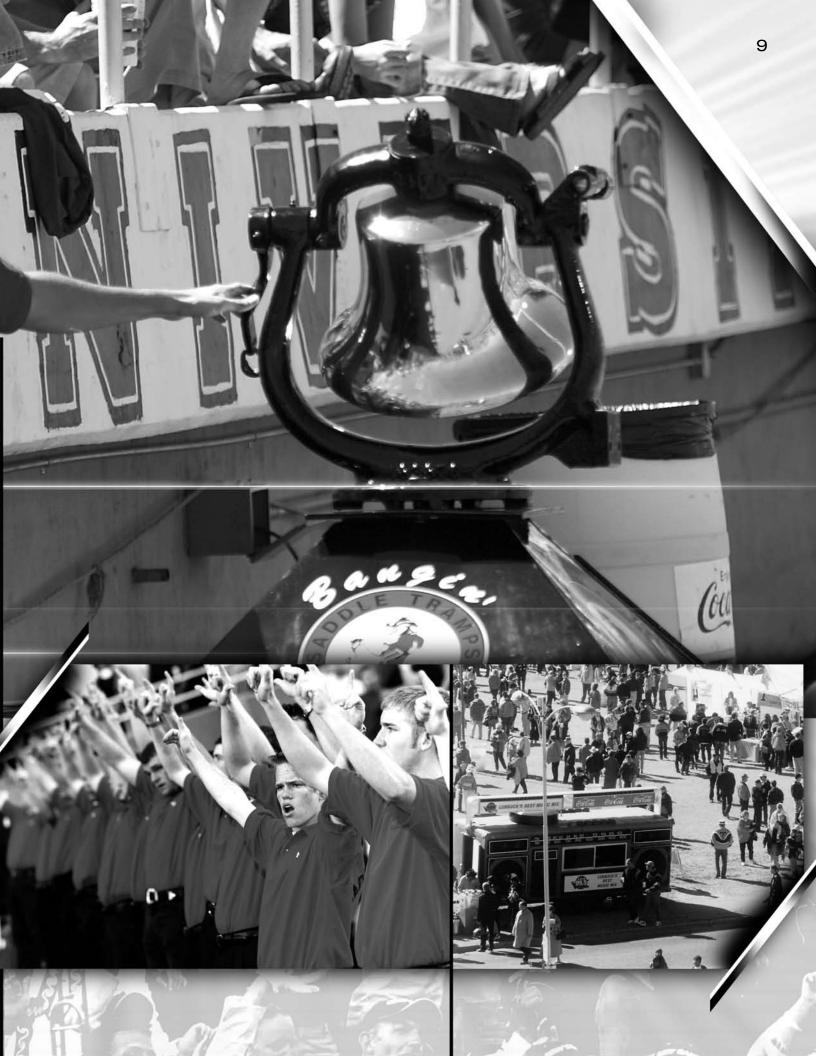

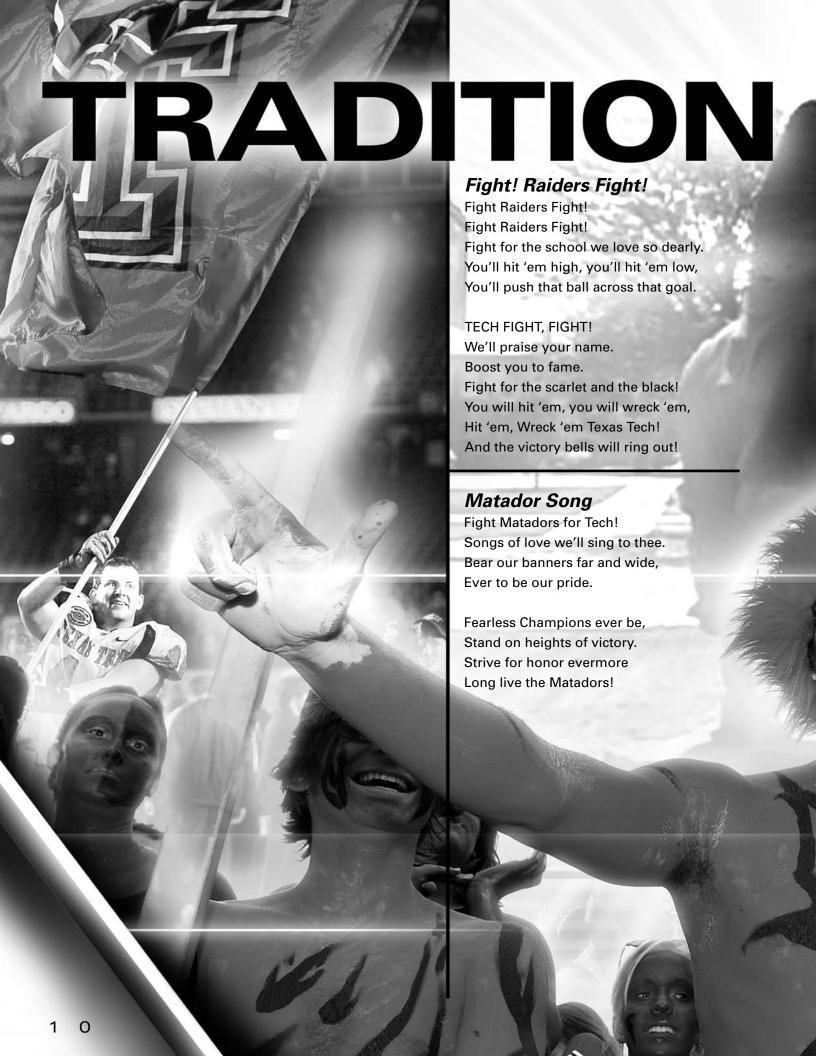

Tradition abounds at Texas Tech and the Spirit of Raiderland reaches out across the South Plains and is on the move across the great state of Texas. The interest level in Texas Tech has never been higher and the great traditions of this major university are making Red Raiders for Life!

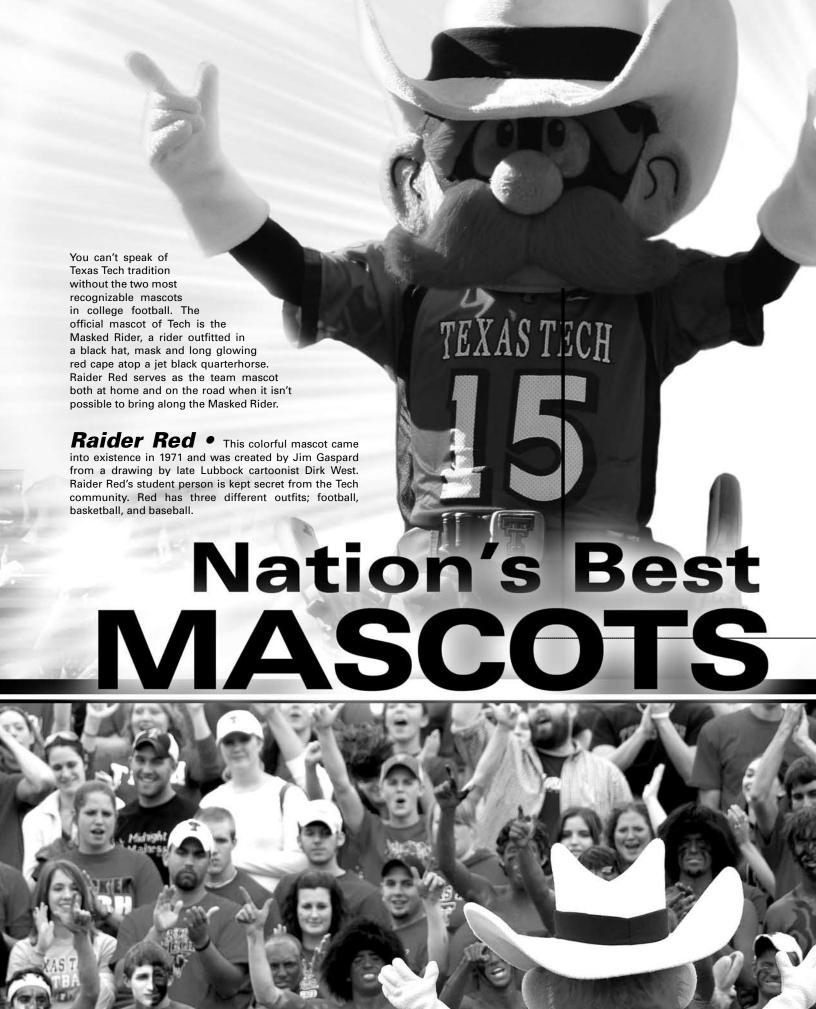

For Texans, football season is the social event of the year and Red Raiders fans certainly know how to show their spirit. Whether it is through the singing of Fight! Raiders Fight! or The Matador Song with your Guns Up or wrapping Will Rogers the night before the game, Red Raider spirit is alive and well.

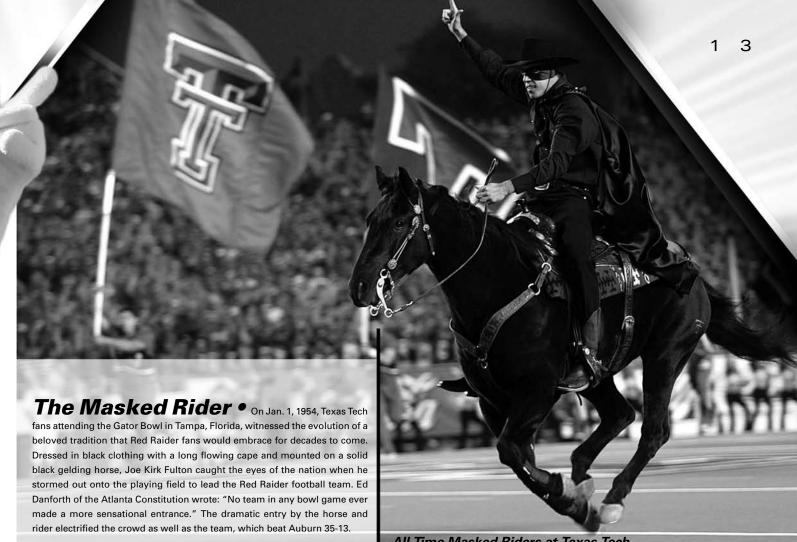

Once you experience the Spirit of Raiderland, and the rich tradition that surround our campus, you will be a Red Raider forever!

Fifty-two years later, the Texas Tech Masked Rider is perhaps the most recognizable collegiate mascot in the country. The Masked Rider is a colorful symbol of school spirit and pride that carries a certain mystique. Wearing black riding clothes, mask, bolero hat, and scarlet cape, and perched atop Amos: a jet black quarter horse, the Masked Rider is one of college football's most unique mascots. Leading the team out onto the field before each home game, the Masked Rider can additionally be seen at other Red Raider sporting events. The rider and horse also represent Texas Tech at rodeos, parades, civic events and school activities around the state.

Serving the Masked Rider position for the 2006-07 academic school year is Amy Bell from Kermit, Texas.

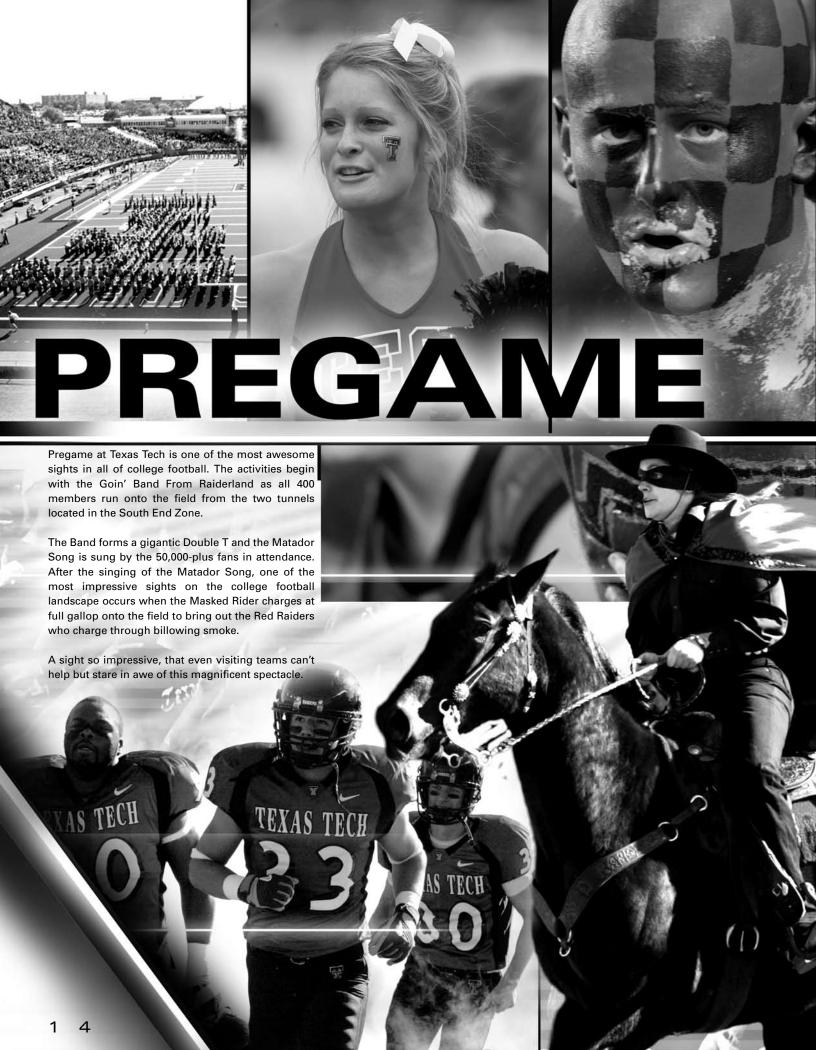

The Masked Rider is selected through a process involving a horsemanship trial scored by independent professional judges and interviews with the university's Masked Rider Committee. Wells Fargo Bank established the Wells Fargo Masked Rider Endowment at Texas Tech University in 1995 to fund operations of the Masked Rider program and provide the $2,000 Masked Rider Scholarship. Wells Fargo has pledged a total of $250,000 to complete the endowment and guarantee the future of the Masked Rider tradition. In addition, Wells Fargo provided funding to obtain the current mascot, the Masked Rider pickup and a new horse trailer.

There is no charge for Masked Rider appearances, but the Masked Rider program does encourage donations to the Masked Rider endowment fund.

Donations may be made to the "Masked Rider Endowment Fund," TTU Box 45014, Lubbock, TX 79409. Call the Center for Campus Life at (806) 742-2192 or visit www.campuslife.ttu.edu/maskedrider for more information.

GON BAND From Raiderland

The Goin' Band From Raiderland is Texas Tech's national award-winning marching band. This 400-member group has earned the reputation as one of the best and largest marching bands in the United States. The Goin' Band has been the recipient of the coveted Sudler Trophy which honors the best intercollegiate marching band in the country. The band got its name as it was the first college marching band to travel to an away game.

The Goin' Band performs four different halftime shows each year. According to Tech fans, Texas Tech has never lost a halftime.

Texas Tech plays in one of the best football conferences in the nation and with that comes the responsibility of national media exposure. The success of the Red Raider football program over the years garners the school attention from major and midmajor news markets in Texas and all around the nation. Texas Tech played on national television eight different times last season and made appearances on four different networks (ABC, FOX, FSN, TBS and ESPN).

The national media exposure helps tremendously in the promotion of the football program and for individual honors such as The Heisman Trophy.

Just three years removed from an $84 million facelift, the home of Red Raider football got a name change (Jones AT&T Stadium) and began another extensive phase of renovations this past spring.

Construction crews began tearing out the artificial surface that had blanked the floor at Jones AT&T Stadium since 1970 in favor of FieldTurf. FieldTurf looks just like grass but is an artificial surface that is designed to enhance the performance of student-athletes and help reduce injury. FieldTurf can be found in nearly every stadium in the Big 12 Conference and around the nation.

The impressive Stadium Club and Press Box that was completed in 2003 can be seen from miles away as the structure rises 151 feet from the ground. The Stadium Club features 47 luxury suites and club seating for 2,000 fans. The new state of the art press box has a capacity of over 200 and includes broadcasting suites for radio and television.

The stadium follows the Spanish Renaissance architecture that is found throughout the rest of campus.

WINNING SEASONS:

Texas Tech has had 39 winning seasons in 58 years at Jones AT&T Stadium. The last team to go undefeated at home was the 2005 squad with a record of 7-0.

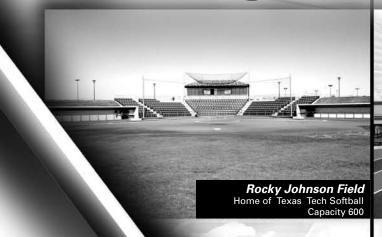

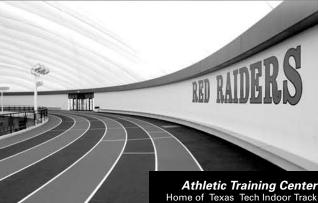

Texas Tech University sports some of the very best athletic facilities in the nation and with the completion of several million dollars worth of renovations, there is no doubt that Red Raider athletes and fans will be able to enjoy worldclass facilities.

Over the last few years, Texas Tech had invested over $200 million in facilities that includes the construction of a brand new 15,050 seat basketball arena, a new softball stadium and tennis complex, a new academic center plus major renovations to Jones AT&T Stadium and Dan Law Field (baseball). Texas Tech is committed to having the very best facilities for the use of its student-athletes and for the enjoyment of its large fan base.

Texas Tech's Best NATIONAL AVARDS

Kliff Kingsbury • National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame Honors

Texas Tech's football past is rich in history as some of college football's best players have worn a Red Raider uniform. Texas Tech has produced several national award winners like Donny Anderson (fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1965), Byron Hanspard (sixth in Heisman Trophy balloting in 1996 and won the Doak Walker Award), EJ Holub (All-American in 1959 and 1960), Byron Morris (Doak Walker Award winner in 1993), Keith Cockrum (Burger King Scholar-Athlete of the Year 1999) and BJ Symons (Sammy Baugh Trophy winner in 2004). Quarterback Kliff Kingsbury added to the list in 2002 as he was named the 2002 Verizon Academic All-American of the Year.

Mike Leach

Mike Leach, arguably one of the most innovative offensive coaches in the country, continues to transform the face of Red Raider football with an all-out aerial assault and swarming defensive attack that has propelled the program into the national spotlight since his arrival prior to the 2000 season.

Leading the nation's most prolific passing offenses in the country, Leach, who received the All-American Football Foundation's Johnny Vaught Head Coach Award in the spring, spreads the field with his exciting brand of football and has guided the Red Raiders to four-straight NCAA passing titles and three-consecutive total offense titles. Leach's offense produced school records in nearly every passing category in 2000, but surpassed those numbers in each of the last five seasons. His six teams have combined for over 151 team and individual records at Tech.

Last season, the Red Raiders won the NCAA Passing Title for the fourth year in a row and led the nation in completions and attempts. Additionally, Tech capped off its season with the program's third alltime appearance in the prestigious and tradition-rich AT&T Cotton Bowl. The Red Raiders finished the season ranked 19th and 20th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches and Associated Press polls, respectively. Tech also won at least eight games for the fourth-straight season for the first time in school history.

Texas Tech has established itself as one of the nation's leading producer of quarterbacks since the 2000 season. Last year's starter, Cody Hodges, became the fourth Red Raider to lead the nation in passing in as many years. Hodges and former Tech and current New York Jets quarterback Kliff Kingsbury each posted nine-win seasons during their careers, while 2003 and 2004 signal callers B.J. Symons and Sonny Cumbie each won eight games in their respective seasons as the starter.

In 2003, Symons, a Heisman Trophy candidate, capped off his senior season with an NCAA Passing Championship and an NCAA single-season record 5,833 passing yards. A year earlier, Kliff Kingsbury finished his senior campaign ranked in total offense (2nd), completions (1st), attempts (1st) and passing touchdowns (1st). The record-setting quarterback also set 17 NCAA records during his career and tied three other marks.

The Red Raiders have improved their total offensive numbers from 324.8 yards per game to 495.8 yards per game since Leach's arrival. The last six seasons rank as the top six alltime at Tech in total offense, while scoring went from 23 points per game in 1999 to 39.4 points last season. The most significant increase has been in the passing game, where the Red Raiders averaged 388.8 yards per game in 2004 compared to 175.4 yards in 1999.

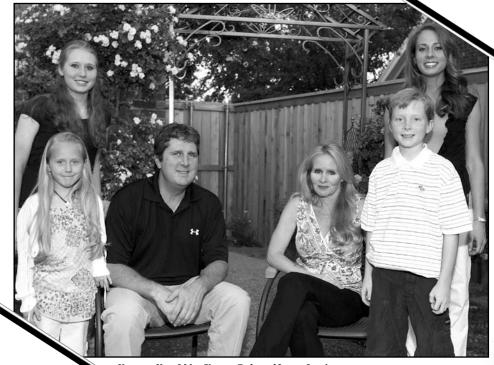

The running game has flourished as well under Leach. Running back Taurean

Henderson rushed for 17 scores in 2005 to rank among the top scoring backs in the country. His touchdown total was the most for a Red Raider since Byron Morris rushed for 22 in 1993. The Red Raiders' 25 total rushing scores were the most for a Tech team since the 1996 campaign yielded 27.

Despite Tech's offense revolving around the pass, Leach has done a tremendous job of incorporating the running back position into the mix. Henderson finished his career with 303 receptions, which ranks first in NCAA history among running backs and fourth overall. Coupled with his talents on the ground, Henderson's NFL stock rose dramatically each season due to his versatility.

Additionally, recruiting has been one of the top beneficiaries since Leach's arrival in December 1999. The Red Raiders' 2006 recruiting class was once again ranked among the top 25. From his first class in the spring of 2000 to this year's list of newcomers, each class continues to get better. Not only is Texas Tech recruiting the Texas area, but Leach also is extending the reach of the program across the country.

The level of recruiting Leach and his staff have attained has reflected in the success of the team. One of the most recognizable areas is the offensive line. The unit has continually improved each season and boasts more size and strength than the past.

The Red Raiders are not solely known for their play on the scoring side of the ball. The Texas Tech defense also has flourished during Leach's six seasons. The Red Raiders tied for the national lead with three shutouts in 2000 and followed with others in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Combined with the six shutouts are four other games where the opposition was held without an offensive touchdown. Tech's shutout of Baylor in Waco during the 2005 season marked Tech's first blanking of a conference opponent on the road since the inception of the Big 12 Conference in 1996.

The play of the special teams has improved with each season as well. Placekicker Alex Trlica finished his sophomore season with a mark of 60-of-60 on extra points, marking only the sixth time in school history for a perfect season. Senior punter Alex Reyes ranked among the Big 12's top punters during his junior season in 2005. Tech's kickoff, punting and return teams also have seen a dramatic improvement in the last five seasons. Additionally, the Red Raiders rank among the top 15 programs in the country in returns (kickoff, punt, fumble and interception) for touchdowns since the 2000 season.

While leading the Red Raiders to 48 wins in his six seasons, Leach is the only coach in school history to lead his first six teams to bowl games. The 48 wins are the most in a Tech head coach's first six seasons.

Although Leach's presence has been felt throughout the team, it also has been beneficial for the players individually.

Symons was the second Tech quarterback to receive The Touchdown Club of Columbus' Sammy Baugh Trophy (Kingsbury in 2002) and was named the Chevrolet Offensive Player of the Year. Symons capped off his senior season with an invitation to the 2004 NFL Combine. The Heisman Trophy candidate was the fourth in a line of Leach-coached quarterbacks to be mentioned as a candidate for the award – Tim Couch at Kentucky, Josh Heupel at Oklahoma and Kingsbury.

Kingsbury, a 2002 All-Big 12 first-team quarterback and sixth-round draft pick of the Patriots, led the Big 12 Conference in several passing categories over his final three seasons and was a Heisman Trophy candidate in 2002. He also was named the Verizon Academic All-American of the Year for football and was awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in a ceremony in New York City.

In 2004, inside receiver Trey Haverty became the first Associated Press All-American since Montae Reagor in 1998, when he was selected to the third team following last season's campaign. Free safety Dwayne Slay earned first-team All-America honors from Sports Illustrated last season, marking the first in seven seasons. Slay was one of the country's most punishing tacklers last season and led the conference and finished second nationally with eight forced fumbles.

In addition to Slay, linebacker Lawrence Flugence and defensive end Aaron Hunt also gained national attention during their careers. Both were named to All-America teams in 2002 and were listed as candidates for various national awards. Hunt was drafted in the sixth round of the 2003 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos, while Flugence signed a free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers. In 2003, strong safety Ryan Aycock was one of the top defensive players in the country, reeling in six interceptions and 101 tackles.

Texas Tech sent five players to the 2006 NFL Combine, the most for Tech in the history of the event. Leach has coached several players who have gone on to the NFL, including Kingsbury, Couch, Heupel and Symons. While at Tech, eight players have been drafted and 15 others have signed free agent contracts. Offensive tackle E.J. Whitley was chosen in the seventh round of the 2006 draft by the Dallas Cowboys, while center Dylan Gandy was selected by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round of the 2005 NFL Draft. Offensive tackle Daniel Loper and linebacker Mike Smith were picked in the fifth and seventh rounds, respectively, in 2004 by the Tennessee Titans and Baltimore Ravens.

The team continues to make strides academically as well under Leach. In 2005 four players were working on postgraduate degrees. For the last six years Tech has been recognized as one of the nation's top institutions for consistently being above a 70 percent gradation rate, according to the American Football Coaches Association.

Prior to coming on board at Texas Tech, Leach, in just one season at Oklahoma, directed a Sooner offense that went from one of the worst in the Big 12 Conference to one of the best. Under Leach's tutelage, Heupel was named 1999 Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year. For his efforts, Leach was nominated for the 1999 Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country.

Leach guided an Oklahoma offense that went from 11th in the Big 12 in 1998 to first in 1999 and 101st in the nation to 11th. In just one year, OU's total offense numbers improved from 293.3 to 427.2 yards per game.

The rise in passing and scoring offense categories is just as impressive. Oklahoma went from last to first in the Big 12 in passing offense in one year, from 107th in the country to ninth. Under Leach, the Sooners improved from 109.9 yards passing per game to 321.7 yards per game.

In 1998, Oklahoma was last in the Big 12 and 101st in the country in scoring offense at 16.7 points per game. In 1999, the Sooners improved to second in the league and eighth in the country in scoring at 36.8 points per game, an increase of just over 20 points per game.

Under Leach, the Oklahoma offense set six Big 12 Conference and 17 OU records. The Sooners were one of only two schools in the nation to have six players with 20 or more receptions in 1999.

Prior to joining Bob Stoops' Oklahoma staff, Leach served as offensive coordinator for Hal Mumme at the University of Kentucky and Valdosta (Ga.) State University.

For two years at Kentucky under Mumme, Leach coached the Kentucky "Air Raid" offense that was one of the most explosive in Southeastern Conference history. Under Mumme and Leach, the Kentucky offense set six NCAA records, 41 Southeastern Conference records and 116 school records in 22 games.

Kentucky's offense produced more than 500 yards of total offense in seven separate games, including a school-record 801 against Louisville.

Leach's Kentucky offense featured the talented Couch, who passed for 4,275 yards and 34 touchdowns as a senior.

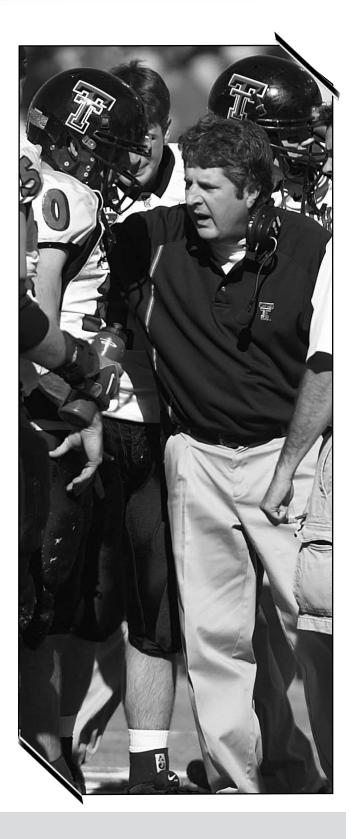

Named 1996 Division II Offensive Coordinator of the Year by American Football Quarterly magazine, Leach helped Mumme lead Valdosta State to a 40-17-1 record. The 1993 Blazer offense smashed 66 school records, 22 conference records and seven national records. In 1994, Valdosta State advanced to the Division II playoffs with Leach's offense shattering 80 school records, 35 conference records and seven more national marks.

Leach and Mumme first teamed up at Iowa Wesleyan College in 1989. From 1989 to 1991 he served as offensive coordinator and line coach for an offense that led the NAIA in passing yardage one season and finished second the other two. Iowa Wesleyan passed for more than 11,000 yards in Leach's three seasons and broke 26 national records.

Leach has also made coaching stops in Pori, Finland, where he served as head coach in the European Football League (1989), as well as one-year assistant stints at College of the Desert (1988) and Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (1987).

After graduating with honors from Brigham Young in 1983, Leach earned a Master's Degree from the United States Sports Academy and his law degree from Pepperdine University, where he graduated in the top one-third of his class.

The oldest of six siblings, Leach and his wife, Sharon, are the parents of four children; Janeen (21), Kim (16), Cody (10) and Kiersten (7). Janeen is currently a junior at BYU.

Ruffin McNeill

Assistant Head Coach/Special Teams/Defensive Tackles

With 21 years of collegiate coaching experience, Texas Tech special teams coordinator and defensive tackles coach Ruffin McNeill enters his seventh season in Lubbock with the Red Raiders and fourth with the special teams.

McNeill's work with the defensive tackles has paid off each of the last two seasons as the unit was part of a defensive group that improved its defensive ranking by more than 65 spots in the NCAA rankings during the last two seasons. The defense finished the season as one of the top 30 defensive units in the country.

The special teams also have benefited from McNeill's presence. Former Red Raider Wes Welker set NCAA records in single-season punt return yards and career punt returns for touchdowns, while Alex Reyes turned the 2004 season into one of the best seasons for a punter at Texas Tech.

During his first three seasons with the Red Raiders, McNeill served as the linebackers coach. Under his watch, Lawrence Flugence set the career tackles record at Tech and set the NCAA single-season tackles record. McNeill also saw freshman linebacker John Saldi claim defensive MVP honors at the Tangerine Bowl in Tech's 55-15 win.

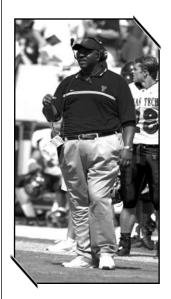

McNeill came to Texas Tech after a one-year stint at Fresno State, where he coached the defensive line. During his season at Fresno, McNeill helped lead the Bulldogs to the 1999 Las Vegas Bowl and a tri-championship of the Western Athletic Conference.

McNeill began his coaching career at Lumberton (N.C.) High School, where he coached the defense from 1980-84. His first collegiate coaching job came in 1985 at Clemson University as a graduate assistant. Clemson won the ACC title in 1986 and advanced to the Gator Bowl. The Tigers also competed in the Independence Bowl the previous season.

Following the 1986 season, McNeill received his first full-time collegiate coaching position at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tenn. He coached the linebackers and special teams at APSU for one season.

After two seasons at North Alabama, McNeill coached linebackers and special teams at Appalachian State University in Boone, N.C., from 1989-91 and again from 1993-96. He helped lead ASU to Southern Conference titles in 1991 and 1995. Appalachian State also competed in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in six out of seven seasons with McNeill on staff. Additionally, he served a summer internship in 1996 with the Miami Dolphins in then-head coach Jimmy Johnson's first season.

Prior to his season at Fresno State,

McNeill was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at UNLV from 1996-98 following three seasons at Appalachian State.

McNeill was a four-year letterwinner at East Carolina from 1976-80. A three-year starter at defensive back, he was the team captain for two years and helped lead

ECU to the Southern Conference championship in 1976 and an Independence Bowl berth in 1978.

He graduated from ECU in 1980 and received a Master's in counseling degree from Clemson in 1987.

McNeill and his wife, Erlene, have two daughters, Renata (26) and Olivia

Lyle Setencich

Defensive Coordinator/Linbackers

Lyle Setencich

Coaching veteran Lyle Setencich begins his fourth season at Texas Tech, serving as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. His work with the Red Raider defensive unit earned him the All-American Football Foundation's Mike Campbell Top Assistant Award in the spring.

The Red Raiders turned in their best defensive season in the Mike Leach era in 2005, finishing the season ranked No. 30 in the NCAA, after ranking No. 110 two seasons ago. The Red Raiders ranked first in the Big 12 in pass defense and 10th nationally.

Setencich's troops stepped up and had the best season as a unit in his three years in 2005. Reserve Fletcher Session stepped in during the third game of the season as the starter in the middle and was nothing short of outstanding. The current senior finished as the team's second-leading tackler and took the defense under his wing and was a vocal leader throughout the unit's success. Senior John Saldi made his final campaign one of his best, while Sylvester Brinkley turned in a solid season. The trio saw most of the action due to injuries and was a vital part in the unit's top 30 national ranking.

Among the many players Setencich has produced into top talent, free safety Dwayne Slay may rank at or near the top. After spending much of the 2004 season in learning mode after transferring from junior college, Slay took the reins of the secondary and established himself as one of the most feared defensive backs in the country last season. He led all conference defensive backs in tackles and set a league record with eight forced fumbles. For his efforts, he was named to the Sports Illustrated All-America first team and earned several Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year

Setencich came to Tech from California, where he quickly made his presence felt upon his arrival in 1997. His resurrection of the Cal defense was well chronicled, as the Bears went from 10th in the league in total defense the season prior to his arrival to eighth in 1997, third in the second year, and finally the top spot in 1999. The 2000 group led the Pac-10 in sacks with 44 and finished third in rushing defense.

Setencich began coaching as an assistant at Mt. Diablo High School in Concord, Calif. He was head coach at both Albany (Calif.) High School and San Ramon (Calif.) High School before moving to the collegiate level as the defensive coordinator at Boise State in 1979.

In 1980, Boise State won the DivisionI-AANationalChampionship and the following year, Setencich was named head coach. While serving in that capacity from 1983-86, the Broncos posted a 24-20 record. He moved back to California to take over the Cal Poly SLO program and served as its head coach for seven seasons, compiling a 41-29-2 record from 1987-93. During his seven seasons at Cal Poly SLO, Setencich gave current Texas Tech head coach Mike Leach his first collegiate coaching position.

Setencich served as defensive coordinator at the University of the Pacific in 1994, helping the Tigers to a 6-5 record, the best mark at the school in 17 years. After one season at UoP, he joined the Arizona State coaching staff as linebackers coach. His influence was felt in dramatic fashion in 1996, when the Sun Devils were ranked first in the Pac-10 in total defense (304.7 ypg). Considering ASU was last in total defense the previous season (426.6 ypg), the 1996 campaign was a vast improvement.

Setencich was a two-year letterman at Fresno State from 1966-68 and graduated with a degree in biological sciences in 1969. He spent one year in the Army Medical Corps before beginning his coaching career.

He and his wife, Kathy, have one son, Peter.

Sonny Dykes

Sonny Dykes

Sonny Dykes returned to his alma mater as the team's wide receiver's coach in January 2000, and his presence has been felt ever since.

Dykes, who received the All-American Football Foundation's Mike Campbell Top Assistant Award in the spring, has been instrumental in Texas Tech's record-setting passing attack. In his six seasons, Red Raider receivers have set numerous individual school and conference receiving records, including Jarrett Hicks, who set the single-season touchdown receptions record with 13 in 2004 and established the career mark with 28 following the 2005 campaign. This year's group is ranked among the top five receiving corps in the country. Additionally, Hicks, Joel Filani and Robert Johnson are listed among the top 10 NFL draft prospects at receiver for 2007.

Filani's emergence onto the national scene last season is evidence of Dykes' coaching. After catching 19 passes for 319 yards and two touchdowns during his first two seasons, Filani had a breakout year in 2005, grabbing 65 receptions for 1,048 yards and eight touchdowns. He also was named to several All-Big 12 first teams and earned a Big 12 Player of the Week honor after his three-TD performance at Nebraska.

Among Dykes' previous pupils at Tech was Carlos Francis, a fourthround draft pick of the Oakland Raiders in the 2004 NFL Draft. Francis finished his career with 20 receiving touchdowns, which ranks third on the career list at Tech and was third in career receiving yardage.

In addition to Francis, Dykes also coached former New York Giants receiver Derek Dorris during his career at Tech. Other players Dykes coached during his career who are currently on NFL rosters include Brad Pyatt (Indianapolis Colts), Bobby Blizzard (Arizona Cardinals), Derek Abney (Baltimore Ravens) and Dougie Allen (Indianapolis Colts).

Dykes returned to Tech from the University of Kentucky, where he coached the tight ends and special teams as a graduate assistant on then-head coach Hal Mumme's staff. The 1999 season in Lexington was his second and saw one of his players, James Whalen, named to the Associated Press All-America team and set the all-time NCAA Division I record for receptions by a tight end.

Dykes also was a graduate assistant under Mumme during the 1997 season, before heading to Northeast Louisiana University for the 1998 campaign.

Under Dykes' guidance, NLU wide receiver Marty Booker broke all of the school single-season and career receiving records. Booker was named first-team All-Independent and played in the Blue-Gray and East-West Shrine all-star games. Booker was a third-round selection in the 1999 NFL Draft of the Chicago Bears and is in his sixth season with the team.

Dykes worked at Navarro Junior College in 1995-96. In 1996, he was the quarterbacks and receivers coach and the passing game coordinator as Navarro posted a 7-4 record and reached the Texas junior college championship game. In 1995, he coached the running backs as Navarro went 8-2

Wide Receivers

Dykes also coached running backs on the high school level at Pearce High School in Richardson, Texas, in 1994. He got his start in coaching as a baseball coach at Monahans (Texas) High School in the spring of 1994.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Dykes was a football and baseball star at Coronado High School in Lubbock. He went on to Texas Tech, where he was a three-year letterman as a first baseman. He graduated from Tech in 1993 with a degree in history.

Dykes is the son of Tech's alltime winningest football coach, Spike Dykes. He and his wife, Kate, were married in July.

Dana Holgorsen

A vital link in the Texas Tech offense is inside receivers coach and cooffensive coordinator Dana Holgorsen, who is in his seventh season with the Red Raiders.

During his first six seasons, Holgorsen's position players have made tremendous contributions to the success of the Red Raider passing attack. Quarterback-turned-receiver Robert Johnson flourished under Holgorsen's tutelage during his first season as a receiver since the 2000 season, when he was a sophomore in high school. Johnson tied for the team lead with 67 receptions and earned Big 12 Conference Newcomer of the Year honors Holgorsen also was responsible for the development of former standout receivers Wes Welker and Nehemiah Glover, who are the only players in school history to record two 1,000yard receiving seasons. Welker also finished his career in a second-place tie with 20 touchdown receptions and had 31 career scores to tie in sixth place. Welker is on the Miami Dolphins roster and was a team captain in 2005. Glover finished his career last season second on the Tech all-time touchdown receptions list (21), third on the career receptions list (223) and fourth on the career receiving yardage list (2,725). A recent product of Holgorsen's coaching, Trey Haverty earned Associated Press Third-Team All-America honors during his senior season in 2004, after catching a teamleading 77 receptions for 1,019 yards and six touchdowns.

Additionally, Texas Tech's former career touchdown receptions record holder Mickey Peters caught 22 scoring passes during his four seasons under Holgorsen.

Holgorsen came to Texas Tech from Wingate University in North Carolina, where he served as recruiting coordinator, quarterbacks and receivers coach and passing game coordinator.

During his one season at Wingate in 1999, the school set numerous records and led the South Atlantic Conference in many offensive categories, while averaging 409 yards of total offense per game and 304.1 passing yards per game. The Wingate quarterback was an all-conference selection and a Harlan Hill semifinalist. One wide receiver was named freshman of the year, while another earned all-conference honors.

Holgorsen was the quarterbacks and receivers coach at Mississippi College in Jackson, Miss., from 1996-98. MC won the 1997 American Southwest Conference in its first season in the league and averaged 432 yards per game.

Holgorsen's coaching ties with Red Raider head coach Mike Leach began at Valdosta State University in Georgia. With Leach serving as the offensive coordinator, Holgorsen coached in a variety of positions, including quarterbacks, receivers and special teams from 1993-96. VSU posted a 26-10 record in three years with Holgorsen on staff.

Holgorsen played collegiately at Iowa Wesleyan College from 1990Inside Receivers

92 as a wide receiver while Leach was the offensive coordinator at the school. Holgorsen earned a degree from IWU in 1993 and a master's in health and physical education from Valdosta State in 1995.

Holgorsen has three children; McClayne, Logan and Karlyn.

Bill Bedenbaugh

Bill Bedenbaugh

Running backs coach Bill Bedenbaugh enters his second season as the offensive line coach, and seventh as a member of the Red Raider coaching staff. Bedenbaugh was the running backs coach the previous two seasons, after serving as the offensive graduate assistant his first three years.

The offensive line has made tremendous strides under Bedenbaugh. As a graduate assistant, three of the players he worked with in his first season all landed on NFL rosters, including center Dylan Gandy, who was selected by the Indianapolis Colts in the fifth round of the 2005 NFL Draft. Cody Campbell and Daniel Loper are on the Colts and Tennessee Titans' rosters, respectively. Tackle E.J. Whitley, who completed his final season in 2005, was an invitee to the NFL Combine in February and was selected in the seventh round of the 2006 draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Bedenbaugh's group was an essential element in the success of the Red Raider offense last season, including the individual performances of quarterback Cody Hodges and running back Taurean Henderson. Hodges became the fourth Tech signal caller in as many years to lead the nation in passing, while Henderson was allowed to display his versatility as a rusher and receiver out of the backfield.

Before taking over the offensive line, Bedenbaugh saw success in his two seasons with the running backs as Henderson continued as one of the Big 12 Conference's most versatile backs. Henderson led the league's running backs for the second-straight season with 5.0 receptions per game and finished second among the league's backs with 16 rushing touchdowns.

Bedenbaugh's presence on the offensive staff was felt immediately in 2000 as Texas Tech jumped onto the national scene, leading the nation in passing and dominating most passing categories in the Big 12. His work with then-offensive line coach Robert Anae helped pave the way for the Red Raider's offensive success.

Bedenbaugh came to Tech in 2000 after serving as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at Ferris State in 1999.

While at Ferris State, the team won the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title. Ferris State ranked first among NCAA Division II schools for most yards in a game (534) and most points in a game (47) that season. Two of his offensive linemen were named first-team all-conference under his guidance. Bedenbaugh also was named NCAA Division II Coordinator of the Year.

Prior to his stint at Ferris State, Bedenbaugh was the graduate assistant offensive line coach at Central Michigan from 1997-98. In 1996, he worked with Tech head coach Mike

Offensive Line

Leach at Valdosta State as assistant offensive line coach with the team advancing to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals and winning the Gulf South Conference. Bedenbaugh was the offensive line coach at Oklahoma Panhandle State in 1995, coaching former Seattle Seahawk offensive guard Frank Beede.

Bedenbaugh, a native of St. Charles, Ill., was a four-year starter at center at Iowa Wesleyan College and played for Mike Leach. He graduated from Iowa Wesleyan in 1995 with a degree in business and earned a master's degree in sport management from Texas Tech in December 2001.

Seth Littrell

Seth Littrell

Former Oklahoma running back Seth Littrell was impressive in his debut as running backs coach for the Red Raiders in 2005, coaching Taurean Henderson to one of the greatest single seasons for a Tech running back in school history.

Henderson, Tech's record-setting back, was exceptional during his senior season under Littrell, as the Big 12 Conference all-purpose yardage leader turned in his best season as a Red Raider. Henderson set several school records during his career and a handful of NCAA marks, including most career receptions by a running back with 303. Henderson's performance during his senior campaign earned him an invite to the NFL Scouting Combine in February.

As a whole the unit scored 25 times on the ground and averaged over 100 yards per game for only the second time in the Mike Leach era. The touchdown total was the most in a single-season since the Byron Hanspard-led Red Raiders scored 27 in 1996.

Previously, Littrell spent the 2004 season at the University of Kansas as an offensive graduate assistant. He came to Tech last year and filled the position previously held by Bill Bedenbaugh, who moved over to coach the Red Raider offensive line.

While at Kansas, Littrell was a member of an offensive coaching staff that was instrumental in turning in one of the best offensive seasons in Jayhawk history. KU averaged 23.8 points per game and 314.5 yards of total offense. The KU passing game averaged 220.5 yards per game.

Running Backs

A four-year letterwinner with the Sooners, Littrell was a team captain on OU's 2000 National Championship team and played under current Red Raider head coach Mike Leach during the 1999 season, when Leach was the Sooners' offensive coordinator. Littrell rushed for 231 yards and seven touchdowns during his junior season, finishing his career in 2000 with 11 rushing scores. He also scored twice during his career on receptions.

The Muskogee, Okla., native graduated from Oklahoma with a degree in communications in 2000.

Carlos Mainord

Safeties

Carlos Mainord

Safeties coach Carlos Mainord enters his third season on Mike Leach's staff with more years of experience as a Red Raider assistant than any coach on the staff. The 40-year coaching veteran has 11 years under his belt at Texas Tech, including stints in 1968, 1984-85 and 1987-92.

Mainord's impact was felt immediately in his first season as the Red Raider secondary finished the 2004 campaign as the nation's 15th-ranked pass defense. Tech's pass defense allowed only 181.3 yards per game through the air.

Enter year two and the unit improved again. Tech finished among the top 10 nationally in pass defense, led by Tech senior free safety Dwayne Slay, who earned first-team All-America honors after becoming one of the most feared safeties in the country. Slay was named Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year by several publications and media outlets and was among the top five nationally in tackles for defensive backs. Additionally, strong safety Vincent Meeks earned all-conference honors and finished his career as one of the top ten interception leaders in school history.

Mainord returned to the South Plains following a successful 10-year run as an assistant coach in the NFL, including the 2000-01 seasons with the Carolina Panthers. He began his professional coaching career with the Chicago Bears (1993-98) and followed with a stop in New Orleans on Mike Ditka's staff in 1999. Following two years, with the Panthers, Mainord served with the St. Louis Rams in 2002.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Mainord spent 27 years as a coach in the collegiate ranks, including six years as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Texas Tech. He had three different years with the Red Raiders, totaling 10 seasons. Between one of those stints, Mainord worked as secondary coach for the Miami Hurricanes in 1986.

Mainord began his coaching career at McMurry College in 1966 as linebackers coach before going to Texas Tech for the first time in 1969 as a graduate assistant. A year later, he moved to Ranger Junior College as secondary coach and was named head coach in 1972. Mainord capped his six seasons at the school with 7-2-1 and 9-1 record, including a top 10 ranking. In 1978, he moved to Rice as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator and returned to Texas Tech in 1983 as the Red Raiders led the NCAA in pass defense and finished second in 1984.

During his playing days, Mainord was an All-American linebacker at McMurry College after starting his college-playing career at Navarro Junior College. A native of Greenville, Texas, Mainord and his wife, Judy, have four sons: Matt, Mark, Tommy and Cody, and a daughter, Cari.

Charlie Sadler

Charlie Sadler enters his fourth season at Texas Tech as an assistant coach working with the defensive

Sadler's troops have been nothing less than outstanding during his first three seasons as the Red Raider run defense has continually improved each year. Tech was a top 30 defense nationally in 2005, up 16 spots from the previous season.

Individually, defensive end Adell Duckett finished his career in 2004 as one of the top ends in the Big 12 Conference. Additionally, Tech returns Seth Nitschmann, who sat the 2005 season while recovering from offseason surgery. End Keyunta Dawson was a defensive force at rush end, but will move to linebacker this season. The defensive line was instrumental in Tech allowing the fewest rushing yards per game since 1999.

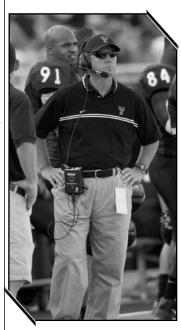

Sadler came to the South Plains after spending three football seasons in the high school ranks at a pair of Austin high schools, Akins High School (2000) and Lake Travis High School (2001-02). He was the defensive coordinator for a season at AHS, before assuming head coaching duties and serving as department chair for health and physical education at LTHS.

His most recent collegiate coaching experience came as head coach at Northern Illinois University (1991-95), where he coached the nation's leading rusher in LeShon Johnson in 1993.

Sadler began coaching at his alma mater, R.L. Turner High School in Carrollton, Texas, as an assistant coach from 1972-1975. He moved on to Lamar Consolidated in Rosenberg, Texas, in 1975, where he served as defensive coordinator for three seasons.

Former University of Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer offered Sadler his first collegiate coaching position as an assistant offensive line coach in 1978. Sadler moved within the Big Eight Conference the following season to Iowa State, where he was the defensive line coach under former Cyclone coach and current Big 12 Conference Senior Associate Commissioner Donnie Duncan Sadler coached in Ames for four seasons, before spending a season at the University of Missouri as outside linebackers coach in 1983.

Sadler returned to Oklahoma as defensive line coach under Switzer from 1984-88 and moved to defensive coordinator under Gary Gibbs during the 1989 and 1990 seasons. During Oklahoma's 1985 national championship season, Sadler coached 1985 Lombardi Award winner Tony Casillas.

Defensive Ends

Sadler was a three-year letterwinner and all-state linebacker at R.L. Turner High School and helped lead RLTHS to the state semifinals in 1966. He played freshman football at Oklahoma under head coach Chuck Fairbanks in 1967, before lettering for two seasons at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Okla.

Sadler earned his bachelor's degree in education from NSU in 1971 and received a master's degree in education from the University of Arkansas in 1972.

Sadler and his wife, Carla, reside in Lubbock. He has a daughter, Dustin Kate, who recently graduated from Trinity University in San Antonio.

Graduate Assistants

RYAN AYCOCK

Defense

Former Red Raider defensive standout Ryan Aycock returns to the Tech lineup as the graduate assistant on defense. Aycock graduated from Texas Tech in 2003 following an outstanding four-year run as a safety in the Tech secondary. He spent the last two years as a pharmaceutical sales rep.

Aycock's responsibilities include assisting with coaching the linebackers, breaking down game film, preparing the scout team for weekly drills and assisting the defensive coaching staff on game days and during practice.

The Lubbock native and former Coronado High School all-district player finished his career with 11 interceptions, which ranks seventh all-time at Tech and 338 tackles, eighth all-time. His single-season high of 151 tackles still ranks among the top 10 season performances in school history, while his six picks during his senior campaign also is among the top 10

Aycock, a three-time All-Big 12 performer, earned a degree incommunication studies in 2003 and is currently pursuing his master's in interdisciplinary studies. He has a one-year-old daughter, Ally.

LINCOLN RILEY

Offense

Shortly after walking on as a quarterback to the Red Raider football team in 2003, Lincoln Riley made the switch to student coach and is now entering his first season as the graduate assistant for offense.

Riley assisted head coach Mike Leach as an undergraduate, breaking down game film and assisting Leach in offensive game planning. His role will continue to be much of the same with the additions of preparing the scout team each week for practice and assisting Coach Leach with the quarterbacks.

A 2002 graduate of Muleshoe High School in Muleshoe, Texas, Riley was a standout in football, basketball, and track, and led MHS to the state semifinals in 2000. He completed his degree in sports studies in 2005 and is currently pursuing a master's in interdisciplinary studies.

David Emerick Manager of Player Personnel

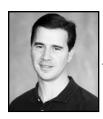

David Emerick enters his third season as a member of the Red Raider Football support staff and second as manager of player personnel. He served as unit coordinator during his first season.

Among Emerick's responsibilities are scheduling correspondence with high school coaches and prospects, assist in the organization and execution of the Mike Leach Football Camps. Additionally, Emerick conducts tours of the athletics facilities, organizes high school prospect tapes for distribution to coaches and assists Director of Quality Control Dennis Simmons in his daily duties.

Emerick, a 2002 political science graduate of the University of Kentucky, was a college scouting intern with the Houston Texans during the franchise's first two seasons in 2002 and 2003. Prior to his stint with the Texans, Emerick was the recruiting and football operations intern at Kentucky whil in school during the 1997-2001 seasons, which saw the Wildcats advance to the 1998 Outback Bowl and 1999 Music City Bowl. Among the coaches on the UK football staff during Emerick's five seasons were current Red Raider head coach Mike Leach and Red Raider wide receivers coach Sonny Dykes.

Emerick is a graduate of Catholic Memorial High School in his hometown of Waukesha, Wis., and prepped in football, basketball and baseball.

David Hougland Director of Sports Broadcasting

David Hougland, who serves as the Director of Sports Broadcasting, is in his 13th year with the Red Raiders. He and his staff coordinate the video needs for all 17 of Tech's intercollegiate sports, while also producing Red Raider Sports with Mike Leach, The Bob Knight Show, and Red Raider Sports with Larry Hays. Additionally, Hougland oversees the video content on the athletic department website, the webcasting of Tech sporting events, production of three video screens and the Texas Tech Television Network.

Under Hougland's guidance, Texas Tech became the only university in the Big 12 Conference with the capabilities to run three video boards from one remote location. Hougland designed and oversaw the installation of the fiber optic network and state-of-the-art control room that allows him to run video screens located in Jones AT&T Stadium, the United Spirit Arena and Dan Law Field. With these capabilities, he creates the game-day productions for football, baseball, men's and women's basketball, volleyball and other entertainment events held at Tech's athletic venues. During basketball and baseball seasons, Hougland supervises the production of home and away games for broadcast as part of the Texas Tech Television Network.

He and his staff work closely with Red Raider football throughout the year, filming practices, shooting home and away games, and producing various video packages utilized by the staff for scouting and game preparation.

A native of Houston, Hougland serves as Texas Tech's liaison with the national television networks in preparation for numerous Red Raider and Lady Raider telecasts. He also coordinates the production of highlight tapes for coaches, television networks, and other media services, as well as various Red Raider Club functions.

Hougland served as a video student assistant at Texas Tech before graduating in 1993. He worked in production at Cox Cable in Lubbock and John Crowe Productions in Houston before his current position was created in 1994. Hougland and his wife, Michelle, reside in Lubbock. He also has a daughter, Ashley, who recently graduated from Texas Tech.

Jeff Jones Head Football Equipment Manager

Texas Tech Head Football Equipment Manager Jeff Jones is responsible for insuring that all of the Red Raider players' are properly equipped.

Jones, in his second season as head equipment manager, handles the entire football equipment duties for approximately 130 student-athletes, which includes supervision of his full-time assistants and student manager program. He is in charge of a wide scale of duties ranging from ordering and inventory of equipment to traveling in advance with the equipment for game day set-up.

Jones started in 1996 as a student manager for Texas Tech Football and later began working with the baseball program. He became an assistant soon after graduating with a major in ESS at Texas Tech in May 2003. He is a graduate of New Deal High School and lives in Lubbock.

Jake
Manzelmann
Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Jake Manzelmann enters year two as a member of the football strength and conditioning staff. The 2000 graduate of Northeastern University in Tahlequah, Okla., came to Texas Tech after serving as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State University for a year.

Manzelmann began his career in 2003 as a volunteer at Northeastern University in Boston, where he worked with the men and women's ice hockey, football and women's basketball teams. Following a year in Beantown, he made his way to Stillwater, where he worked with football and assisted with all women's sports and wrestling, before heading to Texas Tech.

A three-year defensive end at Northeastern University in Oklahoma, Manzelmann graduated with a degree in pre-law and a minor in political science. He attended OSU's graduate school for exercise science and is continuing his master's at Texas Tech.

Manzelmann is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (ASCA), Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Tommy McVay Director of Football Operations

Tommy McVay is in his 10th year as Texas Tech's director of football operations. Named to his current post in September 1997, he oversees many of the administrative duties for Red Raider football.

McVay is a 1967 graduate of Southeastern Oklahoma State University and also received his master's degree from the school a year later. He began his career as head basketball coach and assistant football coach in Waynoka, Okla., from 1968-70. He spent 13 years as athletic director and head football coach on the high school level in Kansas before moving to college as an assistant coach at Kansas State.

McVay compiled a 100-36-2 record in 13 years as a high school head football coach. His football and track teams at Protection (Kan.) High School captured state runner-up honors in 1972. His football team at Derby (Kan.) High School also finished as state runner-up in 1975. He is a past president of the Kansas Coaches Association and was selected to coach in the Kansas East-West Shrine Game.

McVay was a three-year basketball letterman at Southeastern Oklahoma and also was a threetime conference champion in the 440-yard run. McVay finished among the top 16 at the NAIA national championships in 1967.

McVay and his wife, Chele, have two daughters, Kelly and Heather, and three grandchildren.

Zane Perry Assistant Football Equipment Manager

Zane Perry joined the football equipment family upon graduation in December 2005. Perry's responsibilities include assisting Jeff Jones and Benny Conger with all aspects of the football program. He handles coaches, support staff, and helps with game day operations. He also coordinates the coaches' game day setup and assists with play charts for game days. Perry also helps with all aspects of practices and equipment operations.

Perry joined the athletic staff after graduating from Texas Tech University with a degree in Exercise and Sports Sciences. During his tenure as a student, he interned for the Carolina Panthers for two summer training camps. A graduate of Monterey High School in 1999, he joined the student equipment staff and soon became valuable to the football program.

Perry is engaged to Erica Finlayson and lives in Lubbock.

Steve Pincock Head Football Athletic Trainer

Steve Pincock is in his fifth season with the Red Raider football program. Pincock came to Tech from BYU, where he was the head men's basketball, head baseball and assistant football athletic trainer for nine years.

Pincock was the head athletic trainer and strength coach at Snow College (Ephriam, Utah) for three years before returning to BYU in 1993. Pincock graduated from Ricks College (Rexburg, Idaho) and from BYU in 1990. He was a three-time All-American power lifter at BYU.

Additional experience includes an internship in the NFL with the New York Giants and the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta as a baseball athletic trainer. His hobbies include water and snow sports.

He and his wife, Cecilia, have a son Caleb (13) and a daughter Marisa (8).

Patty Ross Assistant to Mike Leach/Director of Financial Operations

Few, if any people, know as much about Red Raider football as Patty Ross does. After graduating from Western Texas College, Ross attended Texas Tech University, where she has served the athletic department for the past 31 years.

By coordinating many speaking engagements, charity outings, media interviews and the other demands surrounding Texas Tech football and a high-profile head coach, Ross keeps close tabs on head coach Mike Leach's schedule as well as overseeing many administrative duties for Red Raider Football. As Director of Financial Operations, she oversees all financial transactions for the football office, weight room, football training facility and the program. She also handles all accounting of camps, clinics and banquets.

Ross began her association with Texas Tech football during the Steve Sloan era. She has worked for six head coaches - Steve Sloan, Rex Dockery, Jerry Moore, David McWilliams, Spike Dykes, and now Mike Leach.

She and her husband, Jay, have three children, Ben, Haleigh and Heath.

Jacob Saye Video Operations Coordinator

Jacob Saye begins his seventh year as a member of the video operations staff at Texas Tech.

Saye's responsibilities encompass all video needs for the football program, including breakdown of opponent video, shooting practice drills and games, producing gameday highlight videos and overseeing a student staff that aids in all aspects.

While growing up in a military family, Saye spent two of his high school years in Germany, before returning to San Antonio for his junior and senior years. A graduate of San Anonio Community College, Saye has a bachelor's degree in radio, television and film.

Saye moved to Lubbock in 1996 from San Antonio and began working in news production as a photojournalist until joining Tech in 1999.

Saye and his wife, Jacye, have a son, Noah.

Support Staff

Dennis SimmonsAssistant AD/Director of Quality Control

A former three-year starter at Brigham Young University, Dennis Simmons enters his seventh season as assistant athletics director/director of quality control at Texas Tech.

Simmons' responsibilities include scheduling and coordinating recruit visits, serving as editor of The Red Raider Report and coordinating the Texas Tech Football Camps.

Simmons came to Texas Tech from Cornell University. Prior to Cornell, Simmons served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, BYU, in 1997, where he worked with the offensive line and special teams.

Simmons graduated from BYU in December 1996 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in broadcast communications. Twice named to the dean's list, Simmons earned four letters and was a three-year starter at outside linebacker. He helped the Cougars win four-straight Western Athletic Conference titles and played in four bowl games, including the Cotton Bowl, Copper Bowl, Holiday Bowl and Aloha Bowl.

A native of Memphis, Tenn., Simmons earned his master's degree in educational leadership in August 1999 from BYU. He served as an NFL Minority Fellowship intern with the Buffalo Bills during the summer of 1999. Simmons and his wife, Kristy, were married in July.

Aaron Uzzell Assistant Strength Coach

Aaron Uzzell enters his ninth season as assistant strength coach at Texas Tech. Uzzell's primary responsibilities includes working with football and volleyball.

While working with the football program, Uzzell is responsible for implementing "Muscle Beach," a conditioning workout geared to aid in the reconditioning of Tech Football's injured student-athletes. He is a certified member of the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCC).

Uzzell also consults area high schools concerning their strength and conditioning programs.

A 1992 graduate of Sanford Fritch High School, Uzzell received his bachelor's degree in exercise sport science in 1997. He and his wife, Amy, reside in Lubbock, and have infant twin sons, Aiden and Archer.

Laura Vandergriff Administrative Business Assistant

Lifelong Lubbock resident Laura Vandergriff begins her second season with the Texas Tech Football office as an administrative business assistant to Patty Ross.

Hired in June 2005, Vandergriff's responsibilities include coordinating recruiting travel for the coaches, preparing and submitting expense reports for coaches' travels, assisting with all camps and clinics and various other tasks as assigned.

Vandergriff is a 1994 graduate of Frenship High School in Wolfforth. She and her husband, Greg, have two sons, Nixon (6) and Ethan (2).

LaVell "Dinky" Williams Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Dinky Williams joined the Texas Tech Football coaching staff prior to the 2005 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for Texas Tech Football. In addition to working with Texas Tech Football Dinky Williams served as an intern with the Dallas Cowboys during the 2004-05 season and as an assistant to Tony Ollison with the Dallas Desperados Arena Football Team during the same season.

Williams arrived in Dallas after spending a year in Rio Grande Valley where he served as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Arena II Rio Grande Valley Dorados. Outside of football Williams served as a manager at a private health club in Lubbock, where he trained athletes returning to Arena and Canadian Football. Williams also worked as a psychiatric child care specialist in Lubbock from 1999-2004.

Williams received an Associated Certificate from the University of Houston in Alcohol and Substance Abuse Counseling before receiving a bachelor's degree in human development and family studies and psychology from Texas Tech University.

During his undergraduate years, he was a reserve running back for Texas Tech from 1989-1994 and was also a competitive weight lifter, setting several world records in his weight class in the bench press from 1998-2003, with his best lift being 452 pounds. Williams has also placed first in several bench press competitions from 1996-2004 and is currently ranked #28 out of the top 100 lifters in the 165-pound division, according to the National Athletic Strength Association of Texas.

Bennie Wylie Head Strength and Conditioning Coach

Bennie Wylie is in his third season at Texas Tech and first as the athletics department's head strength and conditioning coach.

Wylie's presence has been felt from the beginning and he has quickly established himself as one of the top strength coaches in the country. His training methods and dedication to the student-athlete has garnered national attention and has helped him earn the respect of those who work with him.

Prior to his appointment at Texas Tech, Wylie was an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Dallas Cowboys for four seasons. He also worked with head rehab trainer Britt Brown and helped implement rehabilitation for all injured players.

In addition to working with the Cowboys, Wylie also spent the 2002 spring season heading the strength and conditioning program for the Dallas Desperados arena football team, a property of the Dallas Cowboys.

Wylie and his wife, Jennifer, are the proud parents of twins, Braden and Caden, born in December 2005.

Team Awards

Doak Walker Award

Since the inception of the Doak Walker Award in 1990, Texas Tech is the only school to have two different players receive the honor. Byron Morris garnered the honor following the 1993 season, while Byron Hanspard received the award in 1996.

Byron "Bam" Morris

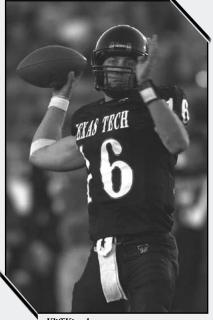

National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame

The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame recognizes those who made an impact on college football during their careers. There are approximately 800 members currently in the Hall of Fame, picked from a pool of over four million players throughout collegiate football history. Two are from Texas Tech - E.J. Holub and Donny Anderson. Kliff Kingsbury was honored by the organization in December 2002 with an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

E.J. Holub

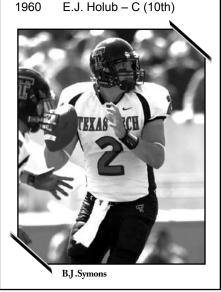

Kliff Kingsbury

Heisman Trophy

The Heisman Trophy was established in 1935 by the Downtown Athletic Club in New York to honor the nation's most outstanding college football player. Five Texas Tech players have finished in the national balloting:

2003	B.J. Symons – QB (10th)
2002	Kliff Kingsbury – QB (9th)
1996	Byron Hanspard – RB (6th)
1965	Donny Anderson – HB (4th)

Hall of Honor

The Texas Tech Athletic Hall of Honor was established in 1961 to recognize a select group of people who have had a special impact on Texas Tech athletics. Induction into the Hall is not limited to past athletes or administrators, although many Red Raider stars are among the members. To be eligible for consideration, the candidate should not have brought distinction to the Texas Tech athletic program, but also have displayed qualifications such as sportsmanship, character, and integrity. A former athlete is not eligible until 10 years after his/her class has graduated. Full-time Texas Tech athletic employees are not eligible. Inductees are honored at the annual Hall of Honor Banquet on Friday night before the Texas or Texas A&M home football game. Since the Hall of Honor's initial ceremony, 128 people have been inducted. More detailed information can be found at www.TexasTech.com and click on Hall of Honor

Climbing the Tech Charts...

WR Jarrett Hicks needs...

..three receptions to take over seventh place on the career receptions list with 173 one TD catch to move into a tie for fourth on the single-season TD list

WR Joel Filani needs.

one TD catch to move into seven-way tie for fifth on the single-season TD list; two would place in tie for fourth

PK Alex Trlica needs.

...five points to become the first kicker in school history to record 100 points in a

...two points to move past Taurean Henderson (2003) in eighth place on the single-season scoring list

Other Notes From 2005:

RB Taurean Henderson is one of only three players to lead the team in scoring three-consecutive years

Henderson set the Big 12 and Tech career record for receptions and finished his career with 302; only fourth player in NCAA history to record 300 receptions

Henderson's 132 points are the most in a season since 1993, when Byron Morris set the single-season record with 134; Henderson is just the seventh player in school history to score 100 points in a season

Henderson's 22 touchdowns also are the most since Morris' 22 in 1993 Tech did not return a punt for a touchdown for the first time since 1998

Tech's 39.4 points per game average is the best under Leach since 2003 when the team averaged a school-best 42.5

Tech's 107.0 rushing yards per game is the second time under Leach that Tech has averaged over 100 rushing yards in a season (2003)
Tech's 495.8 yards of total offense per game is the second most under Leach

(582.8 in 2003)

Tech held opponents to 18.8 points per game, the lowest since 1996 when opponents were limited to 18.6 points

Tech held opponents to 155.4 rushing yards per game, the lowest since 1999 when opponents were limited to 145.3 yards Tech held opponents to 180.4 passing yards per game, the lowest since 2000

when opponents were limited to 164.1 yards Tech held opponents to 335.8 total offense yards per game, the lowest since 2000 when opponents were limited to 320.7 yards

The Big 12 Conference

Enters its Second Decade of Competition

Fresh off its 10th anniversary season, the Big 12 Conference begins its second decade of competition in 2006-07. While there have been many proud accomplishments through the first 10 years, the conference and its members anticipate continued success.

Through its first 10 years, the Big 12 claimed 28 team and 310 individual NCAA titles. During this past season, conference programs captured national championships in football (Texas), women's indoor track & field (Texas), wrestling (Oklahoma State) and men's golf (Oklahoma State). In addition, 12 individual event titles were also won by student-athletes that compete in the Big 12.

The 2004-05 campaign marked the most successful in conference history with six NCAA championships. Baylor won the crown for women's basketball, becoming the first Big 12 squad to win in that sport. Colorado won both the men's and women's cross country trophies, just the fourth school in NCAA annals to win both in the same year. Oklahoma State regained the top spot in wrestling, winning the national title for the 33rd time. Texas captured its fourth women's outdoor track & field crown, along with its sixth national championship in baseball.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with five appearances in the BCS National Championship game. A Big 12 team has played for the football national championship five of the last six years, and each of the last three. In basketball, an unprecedented eight men's and women's basketball teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past five seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Competitive excellence, scholarships and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12's philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and All-Big 12 Academic squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 153 scholars have received more than $845,000 in postgraduate financial aid through the first nine years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 42 million people and more than 18 million television households within its geographic footprint.

The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

The Big 12 is under the direction of its third commissioner, Kevin L. Weiberg, who took over the reigns in December 1998. Weiberg has led the Big 12 into additional football bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN, FSN, TBS and CSTV.

In its 10-year history, the conference has distributed $807.2 million to its 12 member institutions.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports. The conference headquarters will move to Irving, Texas, from Dallas in August 2006

The 2006 edition of the Texas Tech University Football Media Guide is a comprehensive source of information for media covering the Red Raiders. Additional information can be obtained by calling the Texas Tech Athletic Media Relations Office at (806) 742-2770. Our fax number is (806) 742-1970.

The Schedule

Texas Tech will play 12 games during the regular season, including six games at home and six on the road. Tech will play a total of four non-conference games and eight Big 12 games.

All-Time Record

The Red Raiders are in their 82nd season of intercollegiate football and sport an overall won-loss record of 474-378-32. Tech also is 46-34 in 10 years of competition in the Big 12 Conference.

Credential Requests
Please direct all credential requests to www. texastech.com. Requests should be made on-line at the official website of the Texas Tech Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. Confirmation of your request will be made upon review by Chris Cook, Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations. Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Texas Tech Football. Every effort will be made to fulfill each request. Credentials are for adult use only and are non-transferable.

More On Credentials

Season credentials will be mailed in mid-August; while single-game passes will be mailed approximately 10 days before the game. All requests made game week will be held for pickup until 5 p.m. Friday at the Athletic Media Relations Office in Room 117 in the south end of Jones AT&T Stadium. Credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. Friday will be available at the Jones AT&T Stadium Will Call window Saturday, beginning three hours before kickoff.

Phone Lines

Texas Tech provides a minimal number of complementary phone lines. Those members of the media wishing to order their own phone lines can do so by calling Carmen Madrid at SBC (806) 472-1651.

Photo credentials and photo vests are to be properly displayed at all times and are good for Press Box access at all times. Photographers must stay behind the dotted line that surrounds the field and are not permitted in the team bench areas (that includes the area immediately behind the benches).

Leach Availability

During the season, Coach Mike Leach will hold a weekly press gathering each Monday at the JT King Room in the south end of Jones AT&T Stadium. The news conferences will begin at noon. Selected players will be available at each Monday press conference. The weekly press conferences will begin Aug. 28 and run through Nov. 13. Transcripts of the news conference will be available on the athletics web site (www.texastech. com) early each Monday afternoon. During the season, Leach also will meet with the media each day following practice. All additional requests for interviews with Leach should be directed to Chris Cook.

Big 12 Conference

In addition to his Monday pressers, Coach Leach is available on the Big 12 Conference's weekly teleconference at 10:50 a.m. on Mondays. Contact Bo Carter of the Big 12 Conference for access to the teleconference (214/742-1212).

Interview Policy

All Texas Tech player interviews must be arranged through the Texas Tech Athletic Media Relations Office. Texas Tech players will be available following practices on Sunday and Tuesday and not available again until post-game Saturday. Players will return calls to out-of-town media Tuesdays following practice. We ask for the cooperation of the media in not phoning the players at home or interviewing them at times other than those designated.

The Texas Tech Football team practices on the grass practice fields on the south end of the Football Training Facility. All practices will be closed once the season begins and interviews with student-athletes will be conducted following the Sunday and Tuesday workouts.

Postgame Procedures

The Texas Tech locker room is closed. Coach Leach will meet with the media as soon as possible after the game in the designated interview area. Following the completion of his remarks, requested Texas Tech players will be available in the interview area. Postgame interviews with both head coaches take place simultaneously in Jones SBC Stadium, but typed quotes from both sessions are included in the postgame media packets distributed in the Press Box.

Satellite Feeds

The Texas Tech Athletic Department offers a satellite feed on a weekly basis. The feed will include player and coach sound bites, game footage and various feature material and packages. This feed will go up every Monday afternoon. Please contact the Media Relations Office for coordinates and time schedules. Texas Tech will also offer a satellite feed with highlights following every home game that is not televised. Depending on deadline situations and the time of the game finishing, sound bites may also be included in the feed.

Weekly Release

Texas Tech's weekly release and stat package, which includes notes and depth charts, is available each Monday on the Texas Tech web site (www.texastech.com).

Weekly TV Shows

Red Raider Sports with Mike Leach (30 minutes of weekly highlights) is televised each Sunday at 10 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. during the football season. KJTV (FOX 34) is the outlet in Lubbock for the 10 p.m. broadcast, while UPN carries the 10:30 p.m. showing. The show also can be seen in various areas around the state (check local listings). A replay of the show airs Wednesdays throughout the season on FOX Sports Southwest (time to be determined). Drew Dougherty is the host.

Texas Tech Sports Network

The Red Raiders play here! The Texas Tech Sports Network is your home for all of the excitement of Texas Tech football. Week after week, TTSN's complete coverage of the Red Raiders provides Texas Tech fans with everything they need to know about Red Raider football.

TTSN, 29 radio affiliates strong, blankets Texas with complete coverage of Red Raider football. Fans have the luxury of listening to the Red Raiders statewide thanks to the network's strong lineup of affiliates. TTSN was there every step of the way through Texas Tech's 2005 football season and will be on hand once again this year as the Red Raiders challenge for the Big 12 crown.

Play-by-play announcer Brian Jensen returns for his fourth season with the network, joined by color commentator John Harris. Together they bring the action and excitement of Red Raider football to the Lone Star State.

Football on TTSN begins with "The Pregame Show," featuring Texas Tech head coach Mike Leach. The network's coverage continues with an extensive halftime show, updating you with up-to-the-minute scores and college football news from around the nation, and extends well after the final play into the locker room for post game interviews that provide insight from Texas Tech coaches and players. Whether you're at Jones SBC Stadium, at home or in your car, TTSN is a must for every fan on game day.

Fans outside the coverage area will once again be able to listen to Red Raider games live on the Internet through Texas Tech's College Sports Pass. By logging on to www.texastech.com, live play-by-play of Texas Tech football is just a mouse-click away.

For complete coverage of Red Raider football, there's no better seat in the house, in the car or at the stadium than with TTSN.

Brian Jensen

Brian Jensen is a 22-year veteran sports broadcaster and a graduate of Texas Tech University. He has been a television anchor/reporter in the Dallas/Fort Worth market for the past 13 years – first with WFAA-TV and most recently as weekday 10 p.m. anchor with NBC5 (KXAS-TV). During his time in Dallas, Jensen has also hosted several sports radio shows, including a weekly call-in show at KLIF-AM and a number of Dallas Cowboys player shows for Sports Media, Inc.

John Harris

A name synonymous with sports on the South Plains, John Harris, the voice of Red Raider basketball, enters his 21st season of Red Raider football on the airwaves. Harris began his association with Texas Tech football on radio in 1984 as a color analyst with broadcasting legend Jack Dale. He has sat in the anchor position at all three Lubbock television stations and retired from anchoring at KAMC-TV in May 2000. In 1997, the Associated Press awarded Harris with "Best Sportscast in Texas" honors.

Donald R. Haragan, Ph.D.

Interim Chancellor

Interim Chancellor and President Emeritus, Donald R. Haragan, has served Texas Tech University as Professor, Department Chair, Dean, Provost and President since 1969, the same year he completed his doctoral studies in Civil Engineering at the University of Texas. He founded the Atmospheric Science Program in 1970 and was instrumental in the cooperative efforts that led to the establishment of the Wind Science and Engineering Institute at Texas Tech. As Provost for ten years and President for five years, he is credited with molding much of the current administrative and academic structure at the university including the establishment of the University Honors College, the International Cultural Center, the Center for Teaching, Learning and Technology, the University Writing Center, the Texas Tech Press, and the Texas

Tech Regional Centers in Houston, Dallas, Austin, and San Antonio. His research accomplishments are in the area of water resources and conservation with a focus on global precipitation climatology.

Dr. Haragan is a native of Houston. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from the College of Engineering at the University of Texas and his Master of Science degree from the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas. He was named a Distinguished Graduate of the College of Engineering at the University of Texas at Austin in 2001 and in 2003 became a charter member and member of the Board of Directors of the Civil and Architectural Engineering Academy of Distinguished Graduates at the University of Texas. He is married to the former Willie O'Berry, also a UT graduate, and has two grown daughters.

Jon Whitmore, Ph.D.

President

Jon Whitmore began his fourth year as President of Texas Tech University on September 1, 2006. In that time he has pursued an agenda to increase academic excellence by focusing on the people of Texas Tech. 'I believe that if you put people first, they will produce long-term excellence for the university," he says.

The focus on human capital has resulted in 43 new faculty positions, multiple new funded chairs and professorships, a significant increase in academic advisors, and a steady schedule of merit raises for faculty and staff.

Since coming to Texas Tech, Dr. Whitmore has also implemented the Graduate on Time Contract with entering freshmen. The contract guarantees on time graduation with availability of required courses for every student who takes an average of 15 hours per semester.

Working closely with a new position of Special Assistant for Diversity, Dr. Whitmore has also set an ambitious agenda for increasing minority faculty at the university and accomplished the goals set forth in the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board's Closing the Gap initiatives to encourage 500,000 more students to enter college in the coming years in the state.

Before coming to Texas Tech, Dr. Whitmore served as Provost and Professor of Theatre Arts at the University of Iowa from 1996 until 2003. That position followed six years as Dean of the College of Fine Arts at the University of Texas at Austin .

Dr. Whitmore earned his B.A. and M.A. in Speech from Washington State University in 1967 and 1968, respectively. In 1974 he earned the Ph.D. in Dramatic Arts from the University of California, Santa Barbara, where he began his research into and wrote his dissertation on the dramatic writings of William Saroyan.

At West Virginia University, Dr. Whitmore served as Chair of the Division of Theater from 1979 to 1983, Assistant to the President from 1983 to 1984, and Interim Dean of the College of Creative Arts from 1984 to 1985. He became Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Letters at the State University of New York at Buffalo in 1985, and moved to Texas in 1990. Dr. Whitmore has directed more than 60 theatrical performances, produced over 50 main stage and 80 second season productions.

Jon Whitmore and his wife Jennifer are the parents of two teenage children.

Dr. Whitmore also is active nationally in higher education, including:

Chair, Council on Academic Affairs, National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges (NASULGC) ... 2001-2002

Member, Task Force on the Future of the Humanities, American Association of Universities ... 2001-2003.

Gerald Myers

Director of Athletics

If the Double T of Texas Tech had a face it might look like Gerald Myers.

A student and athlete in the 1950s, a basketball coach in the '70s, '80s and '90s, and an administrator in the new millennium, Myers has spent nearly 50 years at Tech.

Myers took over an athletic department in 1996 that was hit hard by an NCAA investigation. The penalties caused several programs to lose scholarships, post-season berths were put on hold and the university has been getting untracked ever since.

In 2004, Tech was one of only four schools to earn a berth in the NCAA postseason for four major sports — football, men's and women's basketball and baseball. Half of those coaches (Mike Leach and Bob Knight) were hired by Myers. Additionally, Tech was the only school in the country during the 2004-05 academic year to win a bowl game and send both basketball programs to the round of sixteen in the NCAA Tournament.

Football and men's basketball, though, aren't the only sports enjoying success with a coach hired by Myers. Wes Kittley's track and field squad won the men's Big 12 Conference Championship and had a record number of men and women track and field athletes (31) compete at the 2005 Championships.

Tim Siegel guided the men's tennis team to its first NCAA Championships appearance in school history after hosting first- and second-round matches for the first time in 2005.

The men's golf team, led by fifth-year coach Greg Sands, reached the NCAA Championships in 2006, the second time he has done so during his brief tenure. Sands has brought the Raiders to the regional tournament in his other three seasons, including 2005. Additionally, the team's 2002 appearance was the first in 26 years. Stacey Totman, head coach of the women's golf team, led the Lady Raiders to the regional tournament in her first season four years ago, and they made a return trip in 2005.

Leach has guided the Raiders to bowl games in six consecutive seasons and for the first time in school history. Knight guided Tech to its fourthconsecutive season with at least 20 victories in 2005 and Hall of Fame women's basketball coach Marsha Sharp led the Lady Raiders to NCAA appearances in each of Myers' years as athletics director. Upon Sharp's resignation in March, Myers brought in one of the nation's finest young coaching talents in Kristy Curry.

Revenue also has seen a dramatic increase under Myers. The annual operating budget for the Athletics Department has grown from $9 million in 1996 to $42 million in 2006.

Tech's increase in revenue under Myers has allowed the university to make renovations to Jones AT&T Stadium as well as build the Marsha Sharp Center for Student-Athletes.

The success of Tech, though, isn't just in wins and losses or dollars and cents. Tech's success is seen arguably where it counts most - the class-

While Myers might not directly impact whether a student graduates, his support has led to an increase in Tech's graduation rates.

Before adopting a new policy, which will involve looking at grades more frequently, the NCAA took its graduation rates in six-year intervals. In the year prior to Myers' first year as AD, 44 percent of Tech athletes graduated (freshman scholarship athletes only). In Myers' first year, which included a lot of transfers leaving the university because Tech was on probation, Tech's number was still higher (56 percent). The student body graduation rate at Tech is 52 percent, meaning athletes are graduating at a higher percentage than the overall student body. The football team's graduation rates for the 2000-01 freshman class ranked Tech among the best in the country (79 percent).

Myers' success at Tech also has led to national recognition and responsibilities. He served on the NCAA golf committee, was a past president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches, and finished a two-appointment on the men's basketball selection committee.

Myers also has been recognized by the All-American Football Foundation, which presented him on Thursday with the Gen. Robert R. Neyland Outstanding Athletic Director Award. The NABC honored Myers at the Final Four in San Antonio with the Metropolitan Award for his contributions to college basketball.

Myers, the winningest men's basketball coach in Texas Tech history, served as Red Raider head basketball coach for 20 years (1971-91). After taking over midway through the 1970-71 season, he posted a 326-261 record and led the Red Raiders to 16 winning records, two conference championships and four NCAA Tournament berths.

Myers also earned three letters as a member of the Texas Tech basketball team from 1956-59. His 86.9 free throw percentage in 1957-58 is still second best on the all-time Texas Tech career charts.

He earned his degree in education from Texas Tech in 1959 and a Master's Degree from Tech in

A native of Borger, Texas, Myers coached at Lubbock Monterey High School and Houston Baptist before returning to Texas Tech in 1970 as an assistant

Myers is a member of the Texas Tech Athletic Hall of Honor, the Texas High School Basketball Hall of Fame and the Panhandle Sports Hall of

He and his wife, Carol, have a daughter, Laurie McKee, and two grandsons, Matthew and Connor.

Red Raider Club

The Red Raider Club is the principal fundraising arm of Texas Tech Athletics. Annual contributions to the Red Raider Club Scholarship Fund directly support more than 250 scholarship student-athletes. These gifts also allow Texas Tech University to build and maintain a first-class athletic program that can compete at the highest levels within the Big 12 Conference and the NCAA.

The Red Raider Club was founded in 1926 as the Matador Club. Its charge was "to support college athletics and to develop close contact between the people of the plains, college students and faculty members in order that all athletic programs may be given the whole-hearted support of everyone." More than 75 years later, with Red Raider Club members stretching across the U.S., that basic mission still applies.

NCAA Compliance

Recruiting at the Division I level is a never-ending process. Our coaches are in some phase of recruiting the entire year, year after year. NCAA member schools formulate rules for recruiting and coaches must recruit within the regulations set forth in the NCAA manual. Our fans, who are considered to be representatives of Texas Tech's athletic interests, also are subject to NCAA restrictions involving the recruitment of prospective student-athletes. The following information is presented in an effort to make you aware of those restrictions, and we appreciate your cooperation in helping us maintain the integrity of our athletics program.

The NCAA Rules and You

Compliance with NCAA rules is of the highest priority for our athletics program and institution. As a member of the NCAA, Texas Tech University is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans. Even the best-intentioned action on your part may be a violation of NCAA rules. Please contact the Texas Tech Compliance Office if you have any questions regarding what is permissible. We encourage our boosters and fans to "Ask Before You Act." Inquiries should be directed to Jennifer Brashear, Senior Associate Athletic Director.

Representatives of Athletic Interests

A "representative of Texas Tech's athletic interests," or booster, is anyone who:

Has ever participated in or is currently a member of the various department support groups;

Has purchased season tickets;

Has made a donation to the athletics program;

Has helped arrange summer and/or vacation employment for student-athletes or provided benefits to student-

Has been involved, in any way, in the promotion of Texas Tech's athletic program.

Only coaches and athletic department staff may be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter, or in person for the purpose of encouraging participation in athletics at Texas Tech University. This prohibition remains in effect after the prospect signs a national letter-of-intent (scholarship offer).

Prospective Student-Athlete

A prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth grade, regardless of his/her athletic ability.

Extra Benefits

Prospective and current student-athletes may not receive extra benefits. An extra benefit is any special arrangements by an institutional employee or representative of the institution's athletic interests to provide a studentathlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. Extra benefits would include, but are not limited to:

Cash or loans in any amount;

Co-signing or arranging a loan;

Gifts or free services (such as airline ticket, restaurant mean, etc.);

Use of an automobile;

Rent-free or reduced-cost housing;

Money for, or a guarantee of, bail or bond;

Employment of a student-athlete at a rate higher than the wages paid for similar work; and

Payment to a student-athlete for work not performed.

Your commitment to helping Texas Tech University comply with the letter and spirit of the rules of the NCAA and the Big 12 Conference is greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your support and for helping Texas Tech win the right way!

 - Serving as ambassadors to the Athletic Department by conducting tours and special events for potential athletes
 - Helping with on-campus recruitment events such as University Days and top scholar recruitment events

- Representing Texas Tech University at local area college fairs
- Hosting guests of the President's Office at sporting events at Jones SBC Stadium and the United Spirit Arena
- Serving as student ambassadors at events hosted on and off campus by the President's Office and the Office of Admissions.

President's Select conducts a membership drive each spring. Current Texas Tech students who have at least 24 credit hours are eligible to apply. Application to President's Select is a three-step process.

Prospective members must:

- Fill out the President's Select application that is available in The Visitors Center, the Office of Admissions and the President's Office during the spring membership drive.
- · Attend an orientation mixer that includes answering questions from a panel of current President's Select members

- Interview individually with President's Select officers and advisors.
- Applications will be available in February
 New President's Select members participate in a thorough training process during the remainder of the spring semester to prepare them for their duties in the fall.

Membership in President's Select affords many benefits including early registration for classes and participation incentives like Texas Tech shirts and accessories and opportunities to attend concerts and other special events at the United Spirit Arena.

TEXAS

Texas Tech University prides itself on being a major comprehensive research university that retains the sense of a smaller liberal arts institution although enrollment approaches 29,000. Texas Tech students boast of one-on-one interactions with top faculty and an environment that stresses student accomplishment above all else.

Founded in 1923, Texas Tech is located in the South Plains of West Texas. It carries the distinction of being the largest comprehensive higher education institution in the western two-thirds of the state of Texas, and serves a region that is larger than 46 of the nation's 50 states.

An Environment for Discovery

Texas Tech is the only campus in the state that is home to a major university, law school and medical school. Students benefit from this by being offered degree programs that combine the assets of these outstanding institutions. Students pursue joint degrees in medicine and business, law and public administration, civil engineering and architecture, and a variety of other programs made possible by the combination of colleges and schools on the campus.

In addition, Texas Tech is a leader in providing students opportunities to participate in undergraduate research. Undergraduate students work side-by-side with renowned faculty researchers and their work is published in major academic journals and presented at conferences around the world.

Undergraduate researchers have explored in vitro fertilization procedures, insecticide toxicity and the role of the brain in the function of the heart. They have also examined voting behaviors, wind engineering, the history of art and topics in literature and the humanities.

Texas Tech receives more money than any other Texas institution for the prestigious Howard Hughes Medical Institute. It also leads the state in the number of Goldwater Scholarships awarded in the last seven years.

The true testament of a university is its graduates. Texas Tech ex-students have been governors of three states, flown space missions, won Olympic Gold Medals, served as ambassadors to foreign countries, acted on Broadway stages, performed in operas, won Pulitzer Prizes, been educators at prestigious universities and even performed heart surgery on prominent late night television hosts. In addition, they head some of the world's largest businesses and some of the country's most successful small firms.

Texas Tech students come from every county in Texas, all 50 states and more than 100 foreign countries. The university offers 150 undergraduate degree programs through eight academic colleges. It also offers more than 100 master's degree programs and more than 50 doctoral programs.

As you begin your course of study, you will find choices that allow you to personalize your education, and resources that support your goals. Our greatest resource, and the heart of Texas Tech, is our faculty. Dedicated to teaching and with a true commitment to academic excellence, our faculty members encourage students to become partners in the learning process. Texas Tech professors prepare students not only for a career, but for a life of learning and leadership.

Honored in their own fields and published in prestigious journals, Texas Tech's faculty is widely recognized for its scholarly research. Undergraduate students have the opportunity to become directly involved in the research projects of a faculty mentor, and may attend regional, national and international scientific meetings to present their findings, or publish in scientific journals.

Students at Texas Tech have the opportunity to build relationships with mentors across a wide range of disciplines, who encourage curiosity and instill an enthusiasm for discovery.

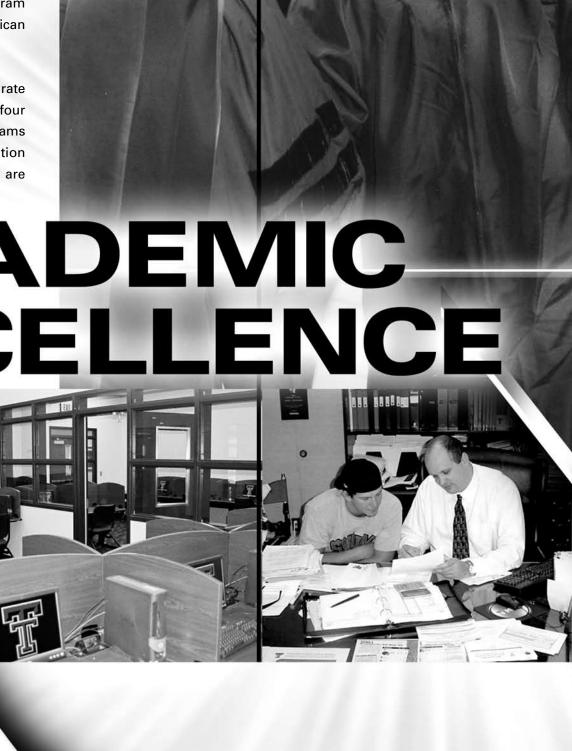

Football Grad Rates among Nation's Best – Again

Program earns distinction for sixthconsecutive year.

Texas Tech's football program boasted an 80 percent graduation rate for the 2000-01 freshman class, marking the sixth-consecutive year the program has been recognized by the American Football Coaches Association.

With the AFCA standard graduation rate at 70 percent, Texas Tech was one of four Big 12 Conference football programs acknowledged by the organization Baylor, Iowa State and Nebraska are the other three.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Senior cornerback Antonio Huffman represented Texas Tech at the NCAA Leadership Conference and was one of 352 student-athletes selected to participate out of 1,319 total nominations.

79 percent graduation rate, ranked in the American Football Coaches Association top 25 each of the last five years.

Nine players will take the field this year with degrees in hand and will be pursuing master's degrees.

The CHAMPS program within the academic services area was one of four programs nationally awarded the Division Program of Excellence Award in 2005. The CHAMPS program provides student-athletes with a formal educational and training program to assist in their "total personal development".

If you are looking for a university that is diverse in its background, strong academically and athletically and is rich in tradition, then Texas Tech is the place for you.

Texas Tech University is becoming a major institution in national research and its graduates continue to make their marks in all areas including business, politics, law, entertainment and sports just to name a few. The student body at Texas Tech numbers nearly 30,000 and provides numerous services for students, faculty staff and the Lubbock community.

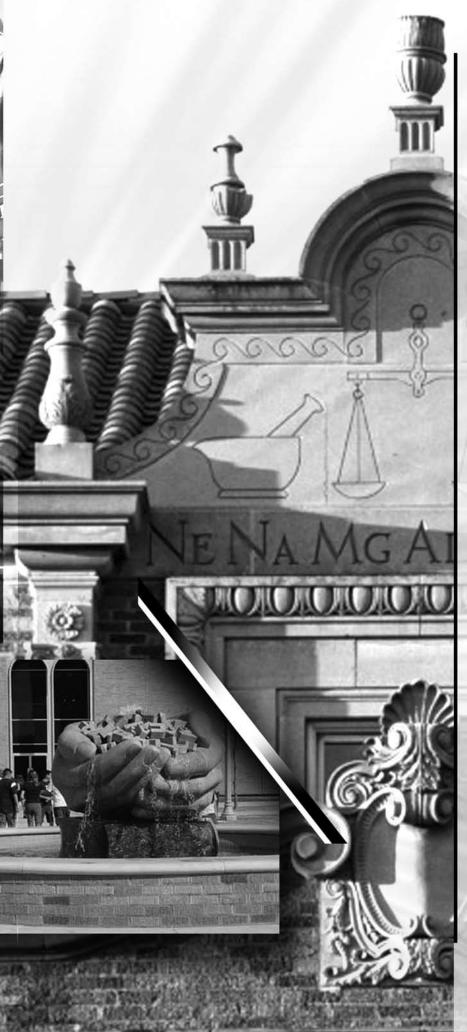

Socially the university is made up of one of the largest greek systems in the state and totals hundreds of various student organizations that are tailored to its diverse student body.

When you become a Red Raider, your are a Red Raider for life.

As the old saying goes..."Texan By Birth, Red Raider By The Grace Of God."

CARIE SELECTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERT

"Texas Tech means a sense of community to me. The first I came here I was a little nervous, but everyone was so friendly and willing to help that it wasn't long before I felt at home."

Katie Myers - College of Engineering

"The friends that I have met, the real life experiences that I have had in the residence halls and living off-campus are things that no one else can teach you. You just have to learn those on your own."

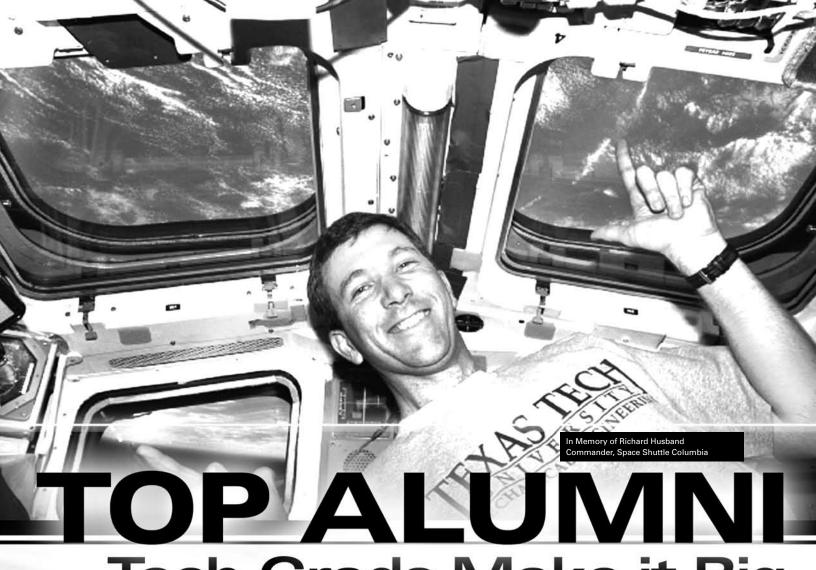

Jessica Andrews - School of Art

"Texas Tech is a school where they like to take people who have potential and use that potential to build great individuals."

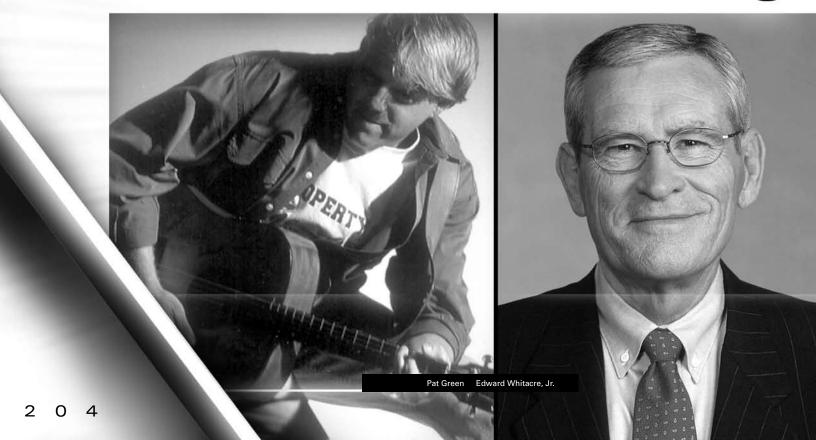

Michael Callahan - College of Business Administration

"Everyone is different at Texas Tech. Everyone comes from different towns, from large cities, small cities, out of state, but we all unite under the same umbrella. We are all Red Raiders, and we all carry that sense of pride with us."

Cynthia Baker - College of Architecture
